

The C quiz

All answers begin with the letter C. In the case of names it is the surname that begins with that letter.

- 1 What is the irrational fear of confined spaces called?
- 2 What are the small Spanish hand-held percussion instruments that produce a clicking sound called?
- 3 Which Scottish comedian first worked as a welder in the Glasgow shipyards, before giving that up to be a folk singer?
- 4 Which member of the Monte Python team played Brian in Monty Python's Life of Brian?
- 5 Which London-born actor, filmmaker and composer achieved fame in the silent film era, particularly as 'The Tramp'?
- 6 What horrible thing is an anagram of 'I savour corn'?
- 7 What is the white crumbly cheese from South Wales called?
- 8 In which county are 92 of the highest 100 peaks in England located?
- 9 In Thomas Hardy's novel Michael Henchard became the Mayor of which fictional town?
- 10 What is the missing word in this old adage? 'Ne'er cast a _____ till May be out'
- 11 Which 5-letter word can follow Windsor, electric and deck?
- 12 Which 10-letter word can precede street, chicken and scot?
- 13 Which word can mean a waterfall or opacity of the eye lens?
- 14 Which US brother and sister duo had numerous hits in the 1970s with their 'easy listening' harmonies
- 15 Who was the twin brother of Pollux? The two brightest stars of the constellation Gemini are named after the pair.
- 16 Which US singer starred with Bob Hope in 8 Road to . . . films?
- 17 After which Polish pianist and composer is Warsaw international airport named?
- 18 Which canal runs for 60 miles across Scotland, from near Fort William to Inverness?
- 19 Which Bizet opera features a gypsy girl, a dragoon and a bull fighter?
- 20 Which English satirist, comedy writer and actor partnered Dudley Moore in the TV series Not Only . . . But Also?