

The D quiz

All answers begin with the letter D. In the case of names it is the surname that begins with that letter, unless otherwise stated.

- 1 Copenhagen is the capital of which country? Denmark
- 2 Which channel port in Kent has (in normal times) regular ferries to Calais? Dover
- 3 What four-letter word can follow close, fern and shut? Down
- 4 What four-letter word can precede thought, clean and end? Deep
- 5 How is coffee described when it has been processed so that it does not keep you awake while your wife is talking to you? Decaffeinated
- 6 Of whom did Tom Jones ask 'Why? Why? Why?' Delilah
- VII How is 500 written in Roman numerals? D
- 8 Two world-famous steam locomotives, Mallard and Flying Scotsmen, were built in the LNER works in which town? Doncaster
- 9 Highwayman Turpin and comic Emery share which first name? Dick
- 10 What is the hardest naturally-occurring substance on Earth? Diamond
- 11 Val Doonican sang about whose quadruped winning the half-mile race? (2-word answer please) Delaney's Donkey
- 12 What two words complete the saying 'Up hill and _____'?' Down Dale
- 13 Which French philosopher said 'Je pense, donc je suis'? (I think, therefore I am) René Descartes
- 14 Which British city had an association with marmalade, The Dandy and The Beano? Dundee
- 15 Alfred Nobel, founder of the Peace Prize, was the inventor of which explosive? Dynamite
- 16 What word can mean an eating regime or an assembly who make decisions? Diet
- 17 Which English cheese comes in a sage variety? Derby
- 18 Oporto lies at the mouth of which river? The Douro
- 19 What first name is shared by politician Cameron, actor Jason and comedian and author Walliams? David
- 20 Graham Hill was a F1 world champion, and so was his son. What is the son's Christian name? Damon