

Colours Quiz Each answer contains the name of a colour.

1. What is the name of Popeye's girlfriend? Olive Oil
2. What name is given to the New Zealand Rugby Union team? The All Blacks
3. What surname is shared by former British prime minister, bestselling US author Dan and British Illusionist Derren? Brown
4. How was the German first World War air ace Manfred von Richthofen better known? The Red Baron
5. Which TV comic character appeared, at different times, with Queen Elizabeth I, George, the Prince Regent, and General Melchett? Blackadder
6. Which was the world's first National Park, established in the USA in 1872? Yellowstone
7. The juice of which citrus fruit was at one time used by the British navy to try to combat scurvy? I originally thought this was Limes, but it turns out other citrus fruits were used, so Oranges or Lemons were also accepted.
8. What do we call an extended run of success, e.g. in sport? Purple patch
9. Which famous progressive rock band initially formed in the late 60s under the name Sigma 6? Pink Floyd
10. What is the name of the Skye terrier who mourned over his master's grave in Edinburgh for 14 years. Greyfriars Bobby
11. Which marine invertebrates live in colonies and secrete calcium carbonate to form a hard exoskeleton? Coral
12. What word can mean a young deer or to try to please or flatter in a servile way? Fawn
13. Which vegetable is also known as brinjal or eggplant? Aubergine
14. According the Ivor Novello song, which flowers will we gather in the spring again? Lilacs
15. Who defeated his uncle and father-in-law James II at Boyne in Ireland in 1690 William of Orange

16. Who had a No. 1 hit in 2008 with the song "So what"? Pink
17. What word means to leave someone trapped in an inaccessible place such as an island? Maroon
18. Who was the BBC announcer and newsreader who was a regular on The Goon Show? Wallace Greenslade
19. What was the name of the 1980 film starring a 14-year old Brooke Shields about two young people cast away and then growing up on a desert island? Blue Lagoon
20. Which 1971 film, from an Anthony Burgess book, starred Malcolm McDonald as a classical-music loving violent sociopath? A Clockwork Orange