

IDEAS OF THINGS TO DO WITH THE GRANDCHILDREN

As promised here are some activities that can be done via Skype or video link.
Not sure what age but here goes!

1. Simple Simon says
2. The Yes No interlude - asking questions but not allowed to say yes or no in your answer!
3. Who or What am I ? - riddles to solve or post it notes on forehead. Trust another person to stick them on!
4. Consequences - create funny stories as you go along taking in turns to say a line
5. Solving anagrams
6. Reciting tables / solving number bonds adding, subtracting, multiplying, dividing.
7. Singing and playing along together (our grandchildren have been creating little concerts to show us - singing, dancing and playing the piano)
8. Guess this tune - prepare some music to play- could be nursery rhymes or pop music - and play snippets for them to guess.
9. Dance along together to a pop song (Super Movers!)
10. Our daughter makes a list of things for the girls to find on their walk each day - in the country or on the beach and then they bring them back to show us and talk about them. (they have been collecting large pebbles to paint for Easter)
11. Try counting in a different language - can you or the children guess?

Other activities - not Skype

Writing letters and posting them to each other and to penfriends in different countries.

Baking cakes
