

The Numbers Quiz

All answers contain a number in some way. These are in increasing order.

1. According to the old song, how many does it take to tango?
2. Which US girl group had a 1974 no. 1 UK hit with When Will I See You Again?
3. Frankie Valli sang in which group?
4. A series of books by Enid Blyton featured some children and their dog Timmy. How did they come to be referred to?
5. A series of chalk cliffs in East Sussex, part of the South Downs, is known as what?
6. Which Indian batsman played 200 test matches and scored more test runs than any other batsman?
7. What was the title of the Chuck Berry hit of 1958 that serenaded a teenager that All the cats wanna dance with . . . ?
8. Which BBC Saturday afternoon programme gives up to date soccer news and results?
9. In Western music, how many keys, major and minor, are there in total?
10. In The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy what was the answer to life, the universe and everything?
11. How many shades of grey were there in the 'novel' by E. L. James?
12. Will you still need me, Will you still feed me are words from which Beatles' song?
13. Which famous US road route used to run from Chicago to Santa Monica in California and is immortalised in song?
14. In the musical The Music Man, which instruments led the Big Parade?
15. Australian cricketers are superstitious about what score, which they call The Devil's Number?
16. What is an ice-cream cone with a Cadbury Flake in it called?
17. The first steam-hauled passenger train service in the world ran from Stockton-on-Tees to which other town?
18. In UK cricket which score is considered unlucky and is called A Nelson?
19. Which word means a total without deductions and is also slang for disgusting?
20. In which George Orwell novel was "Big Brother" introduced?