

'That's the Sprit' Quiz

Every answer contains either gin or rum.

1. Which business man, whose rise and fall were developed in a series of books by David Nobbs, was played in the TV adaptation by Leonard Rossiter?
2. Often called a pick, what is the proper name of the small object used for plucking or strumming (non-classical) guitar strings?
3. Baby, Mel B, Mel C, Posh: what nickname completes the original line up of this girl group?
4. Which Christmas song about a poor young boy without a gift for the infant Jesus was a modest UK hit for the Beverley Sisters and the Harry Simeon Chorale in 1959, and later for David Bowie and Bing Crosby in 1982?
5. What is the chest pain caused by restricted blood supply to the heart?
6. What is this breakfast treat?

7. Which 1971 John Lennon song asked us to consider all the people / Livin' life in peace?
8. Which 9-letter word means a confusing and difficult problem?
9. Which US state on the eastern seaboard has capital Richmond?
10. Who was the 33rd President of the USA, serving from 1945 to 1953?
11. Which lightweight woven cotton cloth usually has a checked pattern?
12. In rugby what is the structure of opposing forwards that is used to restart the game after some offences, such as a knock-on?
13. What word can informally mean a person's head or can be a small measure of an alcoholic drink?
14. What do we call the minimum number of members necessary to attend a formal meeting so that it can legitimately conduct its business?
15. Who, in Dickens' Oliver Twist, teaches a group of children to be pickpockets?
16. Which bright-toned brass instrument has a flared bell and three valves?
17. From 1801-1812 agents of Thomas Bruce stole half the remaining sculptures from buildings on the Athens Acropolis. How are these artefacts now known?
18. What do we call a story of uncertain or doubtful truth that is circulated?
19. What do we call material that is wrapped round pipes, etc., to provide thermal insulation?
20. What term is used for animals that chew the cud, regurgitate it and then chew it a second time?