

The And, Et, Und, Que Quiz

1. Which mountain range runs down much of the West coast of South America?
the Andes
2. What name is given to the global system of connected computers? the internet
3. In the English civil war whom did the Cavaliers fight? the Roundheads
4. What is a Muslim place of worship called? a mosque
5. A good-looking woman may be called beautiful. What do we call a good-looking man? handsome
6. Where was Jesus born? Bethlehem
7. Which old-fashioned imperial weight is about 454 grammes? a pound
8. A female monarch is called what? a queen
9. In which European country are the cities of Warsaw and Krakow? Poland
10. Motown in the USA is the nickname of which city? Detroit
11. What is a circular building, often covered with a dome, called? a rotunda
12. On its north-east coast, which is Australia's second largest state? Queensland
13. What do we call a commercial place where you can wash and dry clothes in coin-operated machines? a laundrette or launderette
14. What relation to a person is the son of her daughter? grandson
15. Who, according to the Bible, lived to the age of 969? Methuselah
16. Which radio play by Dylan Thomas is about the dreams of the inhabitants of the village of Llareggub? Under Milk Wood
17. Which is the most populous city in New Mexico? Albuquerque
18. What four-letter word is a small decorative case for holding needles? etui
19. Which word, usually abbreviated when written, comes from the Latin for and the rest? etcetera
20. Which 17th century Spanish painter was the leading artist in the court of King Philip IV? Diego Velasquez
21. How many occurrences of and, et, und, que are there in total in the 20 answers? There are 24 occurrences: and 5, et 8, und 5, que 6. Answers 12, 13, 17 and 19 each contained two.