

Quiz 13 - General Knowledge Answers

1. About which game have the most books been written?

A: Chess

2. Name the Coffee shop with the Mermaid Logo.

A: Starbucks

3. What is the phonetic alphabet word for U?

A: Uniform

4. Who was the Labour Party's youngest Prime Minister?

A: Tony Blair (43years 214 days)

5. Not including the thumb how many fingers does Mickey Mouse have on each hand?

A: Three

6. In a lonely-hearts ad, what does the abbreviation GSOH stand for?

A: Good sense of humour

7. What is the name of the mythical creature which is half man and half horse?

A: Centaur

8. What organisation did James Bond work for?

A: MI6

9. What is the main constituent of Pontefract cakes?

A: Liquorice

10. Australia's national swan is what colour?

A: Black

11. How many pairs of legs has a lobster?

A: Five

12. In Rhyme, where do you go to see a fine lady on a white horse?

A: Banbury Cross

13. Which Australian bird is nicknamed "The laughing Jackass"?

A: The Cookaburra

14. What Nationality is the EU President Ursula Van der Leyen?

A: German

15. The late Captain Tom Moore was promoted following his walk for the NHS. What rank did he attain? a) Major, b) Lieutenant Colonel, c) Colonel, d) Brigadier

16. Who is the controversial boxer with the face tattoo?

A: Mike Tyson

17. What is the anagram of THINGS?

A: Nights

18. How many quadrants in a Trivial Pursuit circle?

A: 6

19. In a game of snooker, which colour ball is worth 5 points?

A: Blue

20. The royal standard is divided into quarters. The first and fourth quadrants contain 3 Lions Passant. The second quadrant, the lion Rampant. What is in the third?

A: The Harp of Ireland